"Younger generation graduates from Viljandi Culture Academy called Vägilased played the set that was probably the festival's highlight. It was professional and with a strong feel for tradition. The set was carried by the playful joy of uniting different styles, glances from jazz and swinging cabaret. Multi instrumentalist Cätlin Jaago, silver-voiced tricky violinist Meelika Hainsoo and their talented friends with their suppleness and humor created an atmosphere that oozed the waves of their power all over the audience."
